

Ethics News – September 19, 2017

The Canadian Centre for Ethics & Corporate Policy (“Ethics Centre”) is pleased to provide you by email, on a regular basis, with timely articles from a variety of sources, on ethical issues currently affecting organizations.

This month’s first article from Business Ethics Highlights, asks the question, “Should a Man Head an Organization to Promote the Interests of Women?”

Access the article at <https://businessethicshighlights.com/2017/09/17/should-a-male-head-an-organization-to-promote-interests-of-women/>

In our second article, Science Magazine writes, “Pharma Company Protects Patent by Leveraging Mohawk Nation’s “Sovereign Immunity”

Access the article at <http://blogs.sciencemag.org/pipeline/archives/2017/09/11/allergan-pulls-a-fast-one>

Our third article, from the New Yorker asks, “Are Bosses Dictators?”

Access the article at https://www.newyorker.com/books/page-turner/are-bosses-dictators?mbid=social_facebook

ETHICS CENTRE is a uniquely Canadian, independent body, dedicated to promoting and maintaining an ethical orientation and culture in Canadian organizations. We champion the application of ethical values in the decision -making processes of business and other organizations.

We welcome your comments – which can be directed to Lois Marsh at lmars@ethicscentre.ca

In particular, we would welcome suggestions for subjects of interest to you.

May we also encourage you, if you are not already a member of Ethics Centre, to consider joining us.

A New Member application can be accessed on our Website at “The Canadian Centre for Ethics & Corporate Policy”.